

CURRICULUM VITA

Traci A. Berry-Harris, Ph.D.

Office Address: Fremouw-Sigley Psychological Associates
1224 B Pineview Drive
Morgantown, WV 26505
Telephone: 304-598-2300
Fax: 304-598-2307
tberryharris@hsc.wvu.edu

Education

2007

Doctorate in Counseling Psychology-Ph.D.

West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV

Overall G.P.A.: 4.0

Internship Completed: 7/1/2006

Dissertation Topic: What is in the Clients' Best Interest? Examining Therapists' Perceptions of Confidentiality in Various Therapeutic Environments, Professional Organizations, and Client Development
(Chairperson: Roy Tunick, Ed.D.)

2002

Master of Arts

West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV

Major: Counseling

G.P.A.: 4.0

Masters Thesis: A Survey of Counselor Trainee Preferred Learning Style and its Relationship to Computer Skills and Technology Use
(Chairperson: David J. Srebalus, Ed.D.)

2000

Bachelor of Arts

West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV

G.P.A.: 3.78

Major: Psychology; Psychology G.P.A.: 3.85

Minor: Communication Studies

Honors Thesis: Examining the Validity of the Compliance Test for Identifying Children with Disruptive Behavior
(Chairperson: Cheryl McNeil, Ph.D.)

Awards and Honors

10/2004

Recipient of the Kay Thompson Memorial Fund Scholarship to attend Hypnosis Workshop

1996-2000

Recipient of a Leadership Scholarship

Licensure

West Virginia #971

Certifications

National Certified Counselor, Certificate #: 76281

National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education and Certification (NCATE),

Professional Service Certificate, Certificate #: 31

Professional Memberships

2005-Present West Virginia Psychological Association
2002-Present American Psychological Association
1998-Present Golden Key National Honor Society
1998-Present Gamma Beta Phi Society
1998-Present Phi Beta Kappa

Professional Experience

7/2006-Present Fremouw-Sigley Psychological Associates
Morgantown, WV
Supervisor(s): William Fremouw, Ph.D., Terry Laurita Sigley, M.A.
Position: Therapist/Assessor
30 hours weekly.

- Provide psychological services to children, adolescents and adults (ages 3-adult) and their families with various presenting problems including anxiety, depression, trauma, eating disorders, substance abuse/dependency, personality disorders, behavioral problems, and pervasive developmental problems.
- Conduct/interpret comprehensive psychological/ADHD assessment including semi-structured clinical interviews (K-SADS), cognitive and achievement measures (i.e, WISC-IV, WASI, WAIS-III, WIAT-II, WRAT-III), behavioral/emotional functioning rating scales (i.e., CBCL, YSR, Conners, TRF, BDI, BASC-II, TSCC) and personality measures (PIY, PAI, MMPI-II, MMPI-A).

10/2006-Present Chestnut Ridge Hospital
Morgantown, WV
Supervisor: Cheryl Hill, MD.
Position: Assessor
4 hours weekly.

- Conduct/interpret psychological (e.g., MMPI-II, PAI), intellectual (e.g., WAIS-III), and administer sexual offender assessments (e.g, AASI, MSI, STATIC-99) for patients for workers compensation, sexual offender evaluations, and competency to stand trial evaluations.
- Participate in weekly multidisciplinary group meetings with the Forensic Psychiatry Division at Chestnut Ridge Hospital.
- Assist psychiatrists in clinical-related duties during free time.

1/2010-5/2010 Carruth Center for Counseling and Psychological Services
Morgantown, WV
Supervisors: T.Anne Hawkins, Ph.D., Alfred Kasperwitz, Ph.D.
Position: Therapist
4 hours weekly

- Conducted intake evaluations and provided individual therapy to college students.

Doctoral Internship Experience

7/2005-7/2006

Child and Adolescent Service Center

APA Accredited Pre-Doctoral Psychology Internship, Canton, OH

Supervisor: David Coleman, Ph.D.

Position: Pre-Doctoral Psychology Intern

40-45 hours weekly.

- Provided psychological services to children, adolescents, and young adults (ages 3-20) and their families with various presenting problems including anxiety, depression, trauma, eating disorders, substance abuse/dependency, behavioral problems, and pervasive developmental problems.
- Administered comprehensive intake assessments that integrate aspects of clients' social, academic and familial functioning.
- Participated in individual supervision (2 hrs/wk) and group supervision (2 hrs/wk).
- Conducted comprehensive psychological assessment through Psychological Services Division. Assessments utilize various instruments including semi-structured clinical interviews (K-SADS), cognitive and achievement measures (i.e., WPPSI-III, WISC-IV, WISC-IV Integrated, WAIS-III, WIAT-II, OWLS, CTOPP, WASI), behavioral/emotional functioning rating scales (i.e., CBCL, YSR, Conners, TRF, Beck Youth Scales, TSCC, PIC-II), neuropsychological measures (i.e., Rey Figure), and personality measures (i.e., MACI, M-PACI, MMPI-II, Rorschach, Roberts Apperception Test, Forer Structured Sentence Completion Test).

7/2005-7/2006

The ADHD Clinic

Division of Child and Adolescent Service Center, Canton, OH

Canton, Ohio

Supervisor: Geoffrey Putt, Ph.D.

Position: Pre-Doctoral Psychology Intern

- Assessed school-aged children for problems related to paying attention, concentrating, increased activity level and/or impulsive behavior.
- Conducted clinical interviews (i.e., K-SADS), psychological testing (i.e., WISC-IV, WIAT-II, CPT-II), behavioral rating scales (i.e., Conner's rating scales, CBCL, YSR), and direct classroom observation that includes teacher report (i.e., TRF).
- Provided individual and family therapy for children assessed through the clinic using best practice guidelines.

7/2005-7/2006

Child Abuse Treatment Team (CATT)

Division of Child and Adolescent Service Center, Canton, OH

Supervisor: David Coleman, Ph.D.

Position: Pre-Doctoral Psychology Intern

- Conducted individual/family therapy for children who have experienced physical/sexual abuse, or a traumatic event.
- Completed intake assessment, psychological assessment, and treatment planning for individuals who have experienced trauma.

Doctoral Practicum Experience

8/2004- 5/2005

Carruth Center for Counseling and Psychological Services

West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV

Supervisors: Lisa Hamilton, Ph.D., Daniel Long, Ph.D., Peter Kahn, Ph.D., Roy Tunick, Ed.D., Robert Marinelli, Ed.D.

Position: Psychology Trainee

16-20 hours weekly.

- Provided psychological services to college student population with various presenting problems that include: anxiety, mood disorders, trauma, eating disorders, substance abuse, adjustment concerns, and career and developmental issues.
- Maintained weekly Walk-In Clinic hours.
- Participated in outreach activities including Depression Screening Day and Stress Busters Week.
- Participated in individual supervision (2hrs/week) and group supervision (4.5 hrs/wk).
- Administered/interpreted Strong and MBTI and provided feedback to students.

8/2003-7/2004

Valley Community Mental Health Center

Morgantown, WV

Supervisors: Kathleen Kahn, Ph.D., Jay Fast, Ed.D., Jim Delo, Ph.D.

Position: Psychology Trainee

16-20 hours weekly.

- Provided psychological services to children and adults (ages 3-70) with various presenting problems that include mood disorders, personality disorders, substance abuse/dependency, anxiety, behavioral disorders, trauma, and psychotic disorders.
- Participated in individual supervision (2hrs/week) and group supervision (4 hrs/wk).
- Developed/implemented treatment plans and documented daily progress for all clients.
- Conducted a clinical interview and administered/ interpreted a variety of psychological assessments (i.e., WISC-III, WAIS-III, TAT, MMPI-II), parent/teacher rating scales (CGI, BASC), and various functional assessments.

8/2003-7/2004

Crisis Residential Unit (Inpatient Facility)

Division of Valley Community Mental Health Center, Morgantown, WV

Supervisors: Kathleen Kahn, Ph.D., Jay Fast, Ed.D.

Position: Psychology Trainee

3 hours weekly.

- Provided weekly individual and group therapy to adults (18-70 years of age) with various presenting problems (i.e., mood disorders, personality disorders, anxiety, substance abuse/dependency, psychotic disorders) who are currently experiencing crisis.
- Prepared weekly sessions based on client interest and need.
- Documented client progress.

5/2003-8/2003

Ron Pearse and Associates

Fairmont, WV

Position: Counselor

Supervisors: Ron Pearse, Ph.D., Jim Delo, Ph.D.

Position: Psychology Trainee

8-10 hours weekly.

- Provided weekly individual therapy services.
- Observed/scored psychological assessments of clients (ages 4-85).
- Documented client progress.
- Participated in therapy sessions with a licensed psychologist.
- Observed staff psychologists conduct clinical evaluations.
- Participated in individual supervision (1hr/weekly) and group supervision (3 hrs/biweekly).

5/2003-8/2003

Youth Academy

Fairmont, WV

Supervisors: Ron Pearse, Ph.D., Jim Delo, Ph.D.

Position: Psychology Trainee

8-10 hours weekly.

- Provided services to adolescents (ages 12-18) at residential treatment center.
- Developed/implemented treatment plans and documented daily progress for all clients.
- Conducted brief, individual counseling with males and females that focused on treatment plan issues that include: substance abuse, depression, anxiety, interpersonal relationships, and familial conflicts.
- Monitored client's behavioral conduct throughout the facility.
- Assisted in the supervision of client free time and group activities including recreation outings and meal times.
- Participated in treatment team approach that involved consulting with staff members regarding client progress.
- Participated in individual supervision (1hr/wk) and group supervision (3 hrs/wk).

Masters in Counseling Practicum/Internship Experience

8/2000-6/2002

West Virginia University Hospitals (Health Sciences Center)

Morgantown, WV

Supervisors: Carole Harris, Ph.D., Bonita Stanton, M.D., & Mark Gibson, M.D.

Position: Clinical Research Assistant

20 hours weekly.

- Interviewed pregnant women (ages 17-26) who may or may not smoke and their partners to determine the meaning of smoking and pregnancy to them.
- Discussed various issues and current concerns regarding their pregnancy.
- Administered/scored various assessment instruments including the Beck Depression Inventory, Maternal Fetal Attachment Scale, as well as other functional assessments.
- Provided smoking cessation packets to women/partners interested in stopping smoking.
- Planned/attended weekly meetings with a licensed psychologist, pediatrician, obstetrician, and nurse practitioner.
- Provided support to women and their partners by encouragement and acceptance throughout their pregnancy.
- Conducted literature reviews for current study.
- Attended weekly meetings and wrote the minutes.
- Planned/organized all aspects of study.
- Analyzed patient interviews and wrote summaries.
- Coded and transcribing interviews, and entered objective responses into database.

8/2000-5/2002

Mountainview Elementary School/Brookhaven Elementary School

Morgantown, WV

Clinical Supervisor: Mike Fike, M.A., Judith Esposito, Ph.D.

Position: Counselor intern

Practicum: 8 hours weekly; Internship: 40 hours weekly.

- Provided classroom guidance, individual and group counseling to children ages 5-12.
- Utilized a treatment team approach through working with teachers and parents in attending to various student needs to reach therapy goals.
- Presented needs assessment to teachers to determine current needs in the school.
- Attended weekly Student Assistance Team meetings.
- Observed site supervisor conducting therapy with students.
- Attended weekly group supervision meetings with practicum supervisor and master's students.
- Assisted in the facilitation of various groups.
- Administered/scored intelligence and achievement tests.
- Participated in the MRT6/SAT 9 Testing.
- Assisted in the supervision of client free time and group activities.

Undergraduate Practicum Experience

1/2000-4/2000

Chestnut Ridge Day Hospital

Morgantown, WV

Supervisors: Michelle Hewitt, M.A., Katherine Karraker, Ph.D.

Position: Psychology intern

18.5 hours weekly.

- Participated in multidisciplinary treatment team meetings.
- Observed and conducted group therapy sessions with children, youth, adolescents, and adults.
- Observed family and individual therapy sessions conducted by master's level therapists.
- Observed and learned to administer prescreening assessments for admission to Chestnut Ridge Day Hospital.
- Observed psychological testing, and learned to assess and integrate patient symptoms, strengths, and weaknesses into a summary format.
- Participated in supervision sessions with other practicum students and a licensed psychologist.

Research Experience

9/2002-5/2003

Department of Counseling, Rehabilitation Counseling, and Counseling Psychology

West Virginia University

Supervisor: Judith Esposito, Ph.D.

Position: Research Assistant

6 hours weekly.

- Conducted literature review regarding peer mediation in the school system.
- Transcribed interviews for school counselors and students at juvenile detention centers.
- Assisted in writing articles for possible journal publications.
- Entered data into SPSS concerning surveys for current study.
- Met periodically with supervisor to discuss current research agenda.

3/2001 – 5/2002

Department of Counseling, Rehabilitation Counseling, and Counseling Psychology

West Virginia University

Supervisor: David Srebalus, Ed.D.

Position: Research Assistant

6 hours weekly.

- Conducted literature review and wrote introduction for research study.
- Assisted in designing research study.
- Prepared surveys to mail to counselor educators and counselors-in-training.
- Attended weekly meetings and discussed progress in study.

8/1999 – 5/2000

Department of Psychology

West Virginia University

Supervisors: Holly Filcheck (doctoral student), Cheryl McNeil, Ph.D.

Position: Research Assistant

9 hours weekly.

- Coded data for the Compliance Test.
- Learned about other research studies that are taking place in the lab.
- Attended weekly meetings and discussed other previous research.

12/1999 – 5/1999

Department of Psychology.

West Virginia University

Supervisors: Alisa Bahl (doctoral student), Cheryl McNeil, Ph.D.

Position: Research Assistant

9 hours weekly.

- Conducted behavioral observation in local head-start classrooms.
- Coded children for appropriate and inappropriate behavior.
- Recorded teacher's instructions in the classroom.
- Attended weekly meetings and reviewed the previous research related to the studies in the lab.
- Provided consultation for other studies to other graduate students.

8/1998 – 12/1998

Department of Psychology

West Virginia University

Supervisors: Drew Huffman (doctoral student), Anne Watson, Ph.D.

Position: Research Assistant

9 hours weekly.

- Assisted in administration of a variety of questionnaires to school children.
- Attended weekly meetings.
- Reviewed and discussed the literature related to peer relationships.
- Scored test materials for the peer relationship questionnaires.
- Recorded data on computer using the SPSS program.

Journal Publications

Berry, T.A., Srebalus, D.J., & Comer, P. (2003, November). A survey of counselor trainee preferred learning style and its relationship to computer skills and technology use. Journal of Technology in Counseling (online journal). Article can be retrieved at www.jtc.colstate.edu.

Filcheck, H. A., Berry, T. A., McNeil, C. B., & Vincent, J. D. (2004). Preliminary Investigation Examining the Validity of the Compliance Test and a Brief Behavioral Observation Measure for Identifying Children with Disruptive Behavior. The Child Study Journal, 34, 1.

Poster Presentations

Berry, T. A., Filcheck, H. A., McNeil, C. B., & Vincent, J. D., (2000, November). Examining the Validity of the Compliance Test for Identifying Children with Disruptive Behavior. Poster presented at the Association for the Advancement of Behavior Therapy Conference in New Orleans, LA.

Bahl, A., Vincent, J. D., Mumaw, K., Stanislaczyk, P., Starcher, A. N., Berry, T., Rizzuto, L., & McNeil, C. B. (1999, March) Coaching Teachers: Adaptations of Parent Training Techniques for the Classroom. Poster presented at the Tri-State Psychology Conference, Huntington, WV.

Supervision Experience

2/2004- 4/2004

Supervision Course

Department of Counseling, Counseling Psychology, and Rehabilitation Counseling

Supervisor: Sherry Cormier, Ph.D.

Position: Co-facilitator of supervision group
1 hour weekly.

- Provided developmentally oriented group supervision to 4 master's level practicum students placed at Chestnut Ridge Inpatient Services, West Virginia Psychiatric Institute, Rape and Domestic Violence Center, and Mountainview Elementary School.
- Discussed concerns/issues regarding conducting therapy at various sites.

Teaching Experience

8/2004-12/2004

Psychology 101

Department of Psychology, West Virginia University

Supervisor: Cheryl McNeil, Ph.D.

Position: Graduate Teaching Assistant

12-16 hours weekly.

- Prepared/presented 3, 50-minute weekly lectures for an undergraduate class of 117 students enrolled in Psychology 101.
- Answered all questions regarding course material.
- Entered grades for learning activities and extra credit into computer database.
- Maintained office hours and provided tutoring for students with difficulty.
- Monitored computer lab where students take weekly quizzes.
- Received group supervision (1 hour weekly) to discuss questions/concerns of class.

3/2003

Counseling Children's Course.

Supervisor: Judith Esposito, Ph.D.

Position: Teaching Assistant

- Assisted in grading presentations, papers, and portfolios to master's students in counseling program.
- Offered feedback/suggestions regarding student performance.

9/2002

Counseling Techniques Course

Department of Counseling, Rehabilitation Counseling, and Counseling Psychology, Wheeling, WV (Off-Campus Cohort Program).

Supervisor: Jim DeLo, Ph.D.

Position: Teaching Assistant

- Assisted in evaluation of the therapeutic skills of students in the master's program in counseling.
- Role-played client and assisted in evaluating student performance.
- Offered feedback to students regarding performance.

10/2001

In-Service Experience

Supervisor: Judith Esposito, Ph.D.

Position: Presenter

- Provided information to master's students in education regarding role of counselor in school system.
- Facilitated discussion of incorporation of teacher/counselor role in school system.

1/2001-5/2001

Human Sexuality Course

Supervisor: Nina Spadaro, M.A.

- Supervised section of large undergraduate-level lecture course.
- Facilitated weekly structured discussions with approximately 10 students on topics including gender roles, social issues, sexually transmitted infections, erotica, and sexual decision-making skills.
- Submitted attendance records to supervisor.

Other Professional Positions

9/2003 – 2/2005

ACT assessment

West Virginia University

Supervisor: Mun Kostka, Ph.D.

Position: Assessment proctor

As needed.

- Distributed testing materials to test takers.
- Answered questions during and prior to assessment.
- Checked identification prior to testing.
- Observed students to determine if the testing environment is appropriate during testing.

8/2002-5/2003

Department of Counseling, Rehabilitation Counseling and Counseling Psychology

Supervisors: Justin Boyce, Ph.D., Ed Jacobs, Ph.D.

Position: Graduate Assistant

20 hours weekly.

- Answered all questions regarding master's and doctoral programs via phone, intranet, and individual meetings.
- Sent materials, letters of acceptance/rejection to applicants.
- Coordinated/conducted interviews for masters and doctoral program
- Assisted instructors with research duties.

6/2002-8/2002

Kaleidoscope, Mason-Dixon Elementary School.

Supervisor: Dreama Hewitt

Position: Junior Volunteer Coordinator

25 hours weekly.

- Facilitated summer volunteer program with junior high school students.
- Coordinated all activities regarding student field trips, fundraisers, and charity events.
- Provided psycho-educational speakers to children regarding making good choices and the consequences of using drugs.
- Assessed student needs, and provided feedback to students regarding progress.